FOREWORD

THAT — this book may remain an everlasting monument to the friendship created through many happy hours of work, service and relaxation.

THAT — Northeastern creation does not end with the parting of the ways, but rather, expands and reflects with glory upon our school experience.

THAT — friendships held sacred through our years of study may be brought to life in years to come.

THAT — is the purpose embodied within these pages.—
If these are accomplished then our wishes will be realized.

FRESHMEN

COLLEGE YEAR

The College Year

VARSITY BASKETBALL BANQUET

The Harvard Club was the scene of the Annual Basketball Banquet held on March 27, 1930 with about 35 members of the squad, managerial staff and guests present. Here the election took place which resulted in the announcement of LeRoy M. Rymph, '32E, of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., as captain of the team for the season of 1930-1931. Following this Professor Winthrop E. Nightingale, Chairman of Faculty Committee on Athletics, announced the award of Varsity letters to Captain Tiffany, Symancyk, Rymph, Hassell, McDonald, Ransford, Schlier, Hogan and Manager Eldridge.

Roger Eldridge, manager for the past season, presided, introducing as speakers Professor Edward S. Parsons, Dr. Henry Kontoff, Professor John B. Pugsley, Coach McCoy, Professor Nightingale, Captain Tiffany and Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno.

FROSH TRACK AND BASKETBALL BANQUET

On March 28, 1930, the freshman track and basketball men were tendered a banquet at the Hotel Hemenway with about forty-five men present. At this time Professor Parsons, who was presiding, announced that Lloyd Allen, prominent on the diamond as well as the track, had been elected captain of the latter sport.

Coaches McCoy, Zeller and McIntire all had nothing but words of praise for the performances of the yearlings.

ANNUAL MUSICAL COMEDY

"Banned in Boston" a satirical comedy of Puritan morals, was presented as the Annual Musical Comedy at the Arlington Theater, March 29, 1930. This clever bit of thespian performance was entirely produced and put on by the members of the student body endowed with dramatic art, Paul C. Munroe, '31E and Ferris M. Moses, '31E being the co-authors, with "Cy" Plotkin, '34E and Art Hall, '31E writing the music.

Munroe and Moses had the two leading male roles, while William Schafer, '31BA and Malcolm Tobey, '32E, were the two leading "femmes". An innovation was introduced in presenting a prologue of marionettes representing the four characters.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

The finals of the Annual Public Speaking Contest were held at a Mass Meeting in Jordan Hall, April 16, 1930 with Prof. Charles Havice, chairman of the board of elocution, presiding.

Joseph Politella, '34E of Lawrence won the first prize, speaking on the subject: "The End of War" in a confident and effective manner. Ferris Moses, '31E of Boston was second, Norman Y. Roy, '31E, New Bedford, third and John C. Gale, '30E of Brattleboro, Vermont took fourth prize.

SIGMA DELTA EPSILON BANQUET AND ELECTION

Sigma Delta Epsilon, the honor society of the School of Business Administration, feasted at the University Club, April 16, 1930 and at the same time announced the newly elected officers for 1930-1931.

George H. Knox, '31 of Easthampton was honored with the position of president, William Begun, '31, of Gardner was elected as vice-president and Willis P. Burbank, '31, Lynn, secretary-treasurer.

Prior to the announcement of these elections, John E. Vadalà, '31, Boston, James P. Cucinotte, '31, Camden, Me. and Burbank, the new secretary-treasurer, were initiated into the group, bringing the membership to thirteen.

Turner F. Garner, founder of the society, delivered an address, "An Honor Student Should Be an Honor to Society", after which the group was further entertained by an hilarious comedy, "Candlelight", presented at the Wilbur.

STUDENT COUNCIL BANQUET

On April 17, 1930 the Student Council relaxed their vigilance over wayward freshmen for an evening, attending a banquet at the Hotel Lenox. President Richard Carr presided at the function while Dean Harold Melvin and Mr. Benjamin Ellison were the only guests. As an innovation the paucity of after dinner speeches was pleasant.

After the banquet the group repaired to the Plymouth Theatre for a presentation of "Little Accident" an hilarious farce of modern morals.

SENATE ELECTIONS

George Gorbell, '31, of Everett was named president of the Senate, honor society of the School of Engineering, at their annual business meeting held April 17, 1930 in 26H. Vernon S. McFarlin, '31 of Taunton was chosen as vice-president and Sarkis M.

MUSICAL COMEDY BANQUET

About 150 members of the Musical Comedy cast and staff attended their annual banquet at the Hotel Brunswick on April 25, 1930. With Ferris Moses acting as toast-master for the occasion, clever bits of witticism flew around in good natured banter.

The General Manager for the 1930-1931 Comedy was announced as Addison Pratt, '31E of Bournedale.

Dean Melvin, Professor Trentwell White, Raymond C. Hardin, and Vernon O'Neil, General Manager and Business Manager of the 1929-1930 Comedy as well as Pratt, the new manager, were among the speakers.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL BANQUET

The first annual Inter-Fraternity Council Banquet was held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Sheraton on April 28, 1930 with John H. Aldrich, '30E of Uxbridge presiding. As the main speaker of the evening, the Council secured Mr. Harold T. Travers who discussed Fraternities and Fraternity Life. Professor Edward S. Parsons and Mr. Benjamin Ellison were the only guests.

JUNIOR PROM

The Annual Promenade of the Junior Class sponsored this year by the class of 1931 was given in the Main Ballroom of the Hotel Statler with Roy Lamson's Harvardians furnishing the music. Promptly at 12:30 the Grand March was begun and the varsity tray given as favors were distributed, after which the couples repaired to the spacious dining room for the banquet. At this time the mystery surrounding the identity of the escorts for Dorothy and Paula Stone was lifted; two prominent seniors, Roger Eldridge and Nelson Gallagher, were the favored ones. Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno had the pleasure of Miss Carol Stone's company while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone were late arrivals.

An innovation was presented in the selection of Miss 1931 by the Stone sisters. This honor went to Miss Natalee Case of New Britain who was escorted by none other than Raymond E. Edson, our president.

Eric E. Anderson, '31E of Concord, N. H., Chairman of the Committee was assisted in the receiving line by the guests, President and Mrs. Spears, Vice-president and Mrs. Ell, Dean and Mrs. Melvin, Professor and Mrs. Tozer, Professor and Mrs. Parsons and Mr. Benjamin Ellison.

ANNUAL NEWS BANQUET

The Annual Banquet tendered to the staff members of the Northeastern News was held May 9, 1930 at the Hotel Brunswick. After the dinner the announcement of the Managing Board for the year 1930-1931 was made and gold quills were awarded to the new members of the Board as well as to the seniors on the staff who had met the requirements for the award.

Willis P. Burbank, '31 BA of Lynn was named as the new Editor-in-Chief, while Harry A. Gill, '31E of Newport, R. I. was elected Associate Editor-in-Chief. Acting as toastmaster for the occasion was Ernest S. Hill of Taunton, retiring Editor-in-chief. In addition to the new board members quills were awarded to C. D. Heezer of Plaistow, N. H., and S. Neiditz, Hartford, Conn. two seniors who had served as photographic editor and on the editorial staff respectively.

The announcement that Mr. Everett C. Marston advisor to the News for three years was obliged to withdraw from this post due to his work at Harvard, came as a blow to the staff. Mr. William C. Crawford, President of the Boston City Club was the main speaker, his subject being "Some Notions About Some Things."

DEAN'S LIST BANQUET

The Third Annual Banquet given to the upperclassmen who had been on the Dean's List was held at the University Club on May 10 with about seventy-five men present.

The greatly coveted Dean's List Scholarship was awarded to Elmer F. Hintz, '32BA, New Haven, Conn. while John E. Cotter, '30E, Jamaica Plain, received the Certificate of Scholarship awarded annually to the highest ranking member of the senior class.

As the speaker of the evening Dr. Charles N. Arbuckle, Professor of Homiletics at Newton Theological Seminary, was received, choosing as his subject, "Caution and Courage."

Varsity Track Banquet

The Hotel Kenmore was the scene of the Annual Banquet given for the men on the Varsity Track squad, the event taking place on May 24, 1930. Algot O. Forsberg, '31E of Worcester was elected captain for 1930-1931 and Vernon S. McFarlin, '31E, Taunton, named manager. Sixteen men were awarded the varsity letter by Professor Winthrop E. Nightingale, Professor Parsons presided while Dean Ell, Coach Zeller and Jerry Tatton had their words of praise for the team.

RECEPTION TO DIVISION A FRESHMEN

In Bates Hall on September 12, 1930 the Freshmen were tendered a reception by the Student Union. The new men were given their first opportunity to see Husky and become better acquainted with each other.

A movie, "Alaskan Adventures" was shown and Peter Murray, a very entertaining humorist, presented a diversified program. Dean Ell and Professor Holmes spoke briefly to the new men while Professor Havice, the Executive Secretary of the Union, welcomed the students.

DIVISION A SOPHOMORE-FRESHMAN RUSH

At Huntington Field on September 30, 1930 the Sophomores won the rush by the score of 195-90 and proved to the Freshmen that the Frosh rules would be in effect for seven weeks more. Since the second year men won the Pole Rush, the football game and half the points in the six-legged race, the new men were decidedly outclassed but they showed fight. Enough of the latter was evidenced in the Pole Rush Classic.

SOPHOMORE HOP

A "Sophomore Get-together Dance" was given at Brown Hall on October 4, 1930 for the benefit of drawing both divisions of 1934 closer together. About 175 couples attended the affair, all classes being represented in goodly numbers. Manny Williams' orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

FORE PAW KEY SOCIETY DANCE

The first dance of its kind held at Northeastern was the Fore Paw Key Society Formal Dance at Longwood Towers on October 24, 1930. The affair was open to all the students with the captains and coaches of all sports as invited guests. Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno, ardent supporter of Husky athletics was much in evidence. About seventy-five couples attended.

SENIOR DANCE

To the music of Karl Rohde's Orchestra, 200 couples danced at Brown Hall on November 21, 1930 as guests of the Senior Class. Diversified entertainment was offered by a professional dance pair.

Professor Eliot F. Tozer and Mr. Benjamin F. Ellison, class advisors, were present as well as other members of the faculty.

SOCCER BANQUET

The annual soccer banquet was held at the Harvard Club on December third. This was a very enjoyable occasion for it celebrated the second season a Northeastern soccer squad had gone through its schedule undefeated. Mr. H. Bradlee Fenno was a guest of the team as were the members of the Faculty Committee on Athletics. Mr. Raymond who acted as assistant coach throughout the season was toastmaster. Professor Parsons acting for the Athletic Committee awarded letters to Captain Al Booker, Herbert Tiffany, Lester J. Kershaw, George L. Gorbell and Linwood Stetson, seniors, and to seven other lowerclassmen. It was announced that Harry R. Feldman would be the Varsity manager for the 1931 season. Al Booker was re-elected by the lettermen for the coming season. Mr. Fenno presented each of the lettermen with a gold soccer ball suitably inscribed. The team presented Coach Dave Priestly with a handsome leather traveling kit as a mark of their sincere friendship and appreciation of their coach.

INTER-FRATERNITY BALL

On December 12, 1930, 125 couples, guests of the Inter-Fraternity Council danced to the tune of Perley Stevens' Orchestra at Longwood Towers. Arrangements for the affair were in the hands of Willis P. Burbank, '31BA Chairman of the Social Committee, and John W. LaBelle, '32E.

Moreno and Hughes, exhibition dancers, provided entertainment while the dancers rested.

DIVISION B SOPHOMORE-FRESHMAN RUSH

The Division B Freshmen upheld the honor of their class in the Johnson Memorial Gymnasium by massing 450 points against the 100 of their traditional rivals, the sophomores.

The second year men had virtually no chance against the overwhelming number of Frosh. In each of the three tugs-of-war the Freshmen won fifty points, added another hundred with the basketball game and a hundred in the obstacle race, then brought the total to 450 by taking the relay race. The Sophs got their lone tally in the volley ball encounter.

MIDWINTER CONCERT AND DANCE

The combined Musical Clubs gave their annual concert at Jordan Hall on the evening of January 28, 1931. In attending this concert the student body and their friends gained the only opportunity of the year to hear all the musical organizations of Northeastern, that is, the University Band, Concert Orchestra, the Glee Club, Banjo Club, Saxophone Band and the Bacchanalians.

In addition, Walter Smith, famed trumpet soloist secured as a special attraction, rendered "Fantasie Brilliant" and then as an encore, "Oh, Promise Me." Irma Watson and Howard Harrington, guest artists, offered a number of vocal presentations in costume.

From ten to twelve o'clock the Bacchanalians furnished music for dancing in Brown Hall to round out a pleasant evening.

FRESHMAN VALENTINE DANCE

The ever popular Brown Hall was the scene of the Freshman Valentine Dance held February 13, 1931, with music by Leo Reisman. Over 175 couples attended the gala affair, members of all classes accepting the hospitality of the new men.

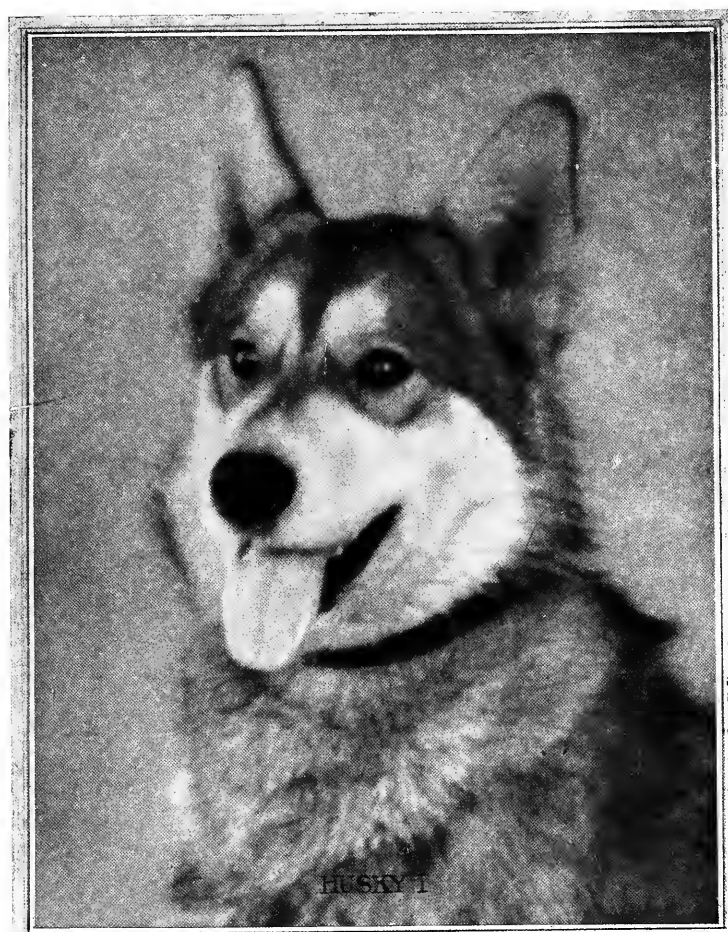

Vice-President and Mrs. Carl S. Ell, Dean and Mrs. Harold W. Melvin were guests of honor as well as the class advisors.

SIGMA DELTA EPSILON ELECTION

Of interest to all is the announcement of the men elected to the Honor Society of the School of Business Administration. John A. Turner of New Bedford was the only senior to receive this coveted honor; Elmer F. Hintz, New Haven and Karl Myers of Lawrence were the two juniors and Walter B. Thayer, Lynn was the only sophomore. The announcement of elections was preceded by a dinner.

SENATE ELECTIONS

At a meeting of the Senate, held on Thursday, February 26, 1931, fifteen men were elected to membership in the honor society of the Engineering School. Five seniors, seven juniors and three sophomores gained the high honor. The Seniors elected are Lester R. Parks, Charles N. Kimball, Jr. and John C. Hickey, all of Everett; Clifford L. Chatterton, Wakefield; and Charles V. Scher, Beverly. The Juniors are James A. Falt and Alex Gorbunoff, of Quincy, Winslow J. Walker, Marlboro; Harold S. Madon, Lynn; Joseph J. Belsky, Haverhill; Raymond W. James, Gardiner, Maine; and Arnold E. Powell, New Bedford. The three Sophomores are Robert F. Chamberlain, Boston; Frederick E. Abbott, Falmouth; and Francis A. Provenzano, Boston.

THIS honorary society, in the School of Engineering, was organized on May 3, 1921. The exacting membership requirements are founded on a threefold basis: "Scholastic attainment, character, and personality."

At one of the early meetings, the name "The Senate" was adopted. A charm in the form of a scroll with the word "Senate", in old English letters on the front and suitably engraved on the back, was chosen as the official insignia of the society. The purpose of the organization was thus stated: "To foster and promote high scholarship and social activity."

It is traditional that membership in the Senate is the highest honor which can be conferred upon a student at Northeastern University, School of Engineering. This is so because it is recognized that, although scholarship is the fundamental basis upon which the Senate is built, yet its rules recognize the fact that high scholarship is but one of the characteristics of an all-round, outstanding man. The Senate scroll is awarded only to one who, by his, "Excellence in scholarship, integrity of character, diligence in extra curricula activities, and faithful endeavor in the interests of his fellow students," has demonstrated his ability and shown his love for his Alma Mater.

ELECTION to Sigma Delta Epsilon, the honorary society of the school of Business Administration, is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a student in this school. Those who are eligible for election are considered upon the basis of sound scholarship, personal character, and University activities. These privileged men are notable for their general leadership in undergraduate life. Carrying high standards into their business and professional careers, Sigma Delta Epsilon alumni are to be found in eminent places among the younger graduates.

The gold key of the society is rhombic in design with the esoteric symbolism of the fraternity and the Greek letters, Sigma Delta Epsilon, engraved upon it.

THE University Student Council was organized in the fall of 1927, replacing the Engineering and Business Administration Councils. It is primarily a body endowed with the power to govern student activities. With Mr. Benjamin M. Ellison, former student member of this body, as advisor, the council has worked very harmoniously and efficiently this year.

One of the heaviest burdens which the council carries each year is the matter of Sophomore-Freshman relationships, and they have been handled this year by both councils in a very satisfactory manner.

In addition to the large amount of work entailed in interclass relationship, the Council has considered many matters of policy and has made many important decisions. The Council has gradually increased its scope of activities and tends more and more to make itself felt as an aggressive and positive factor in student activities.

THE Inter-Fraternity Council is a representative group governing inter-fraternity relations. It is composed of two members from each of the eleven fraternities of the Engineering and Business Administration Schools. The council is now in its fourth year, and the friendly spirit and harmony existing among the fraternities is largely due to the efforts of this organization.

The Council is advised by Mr. Ellison and its decisions are reviewed and checked by the Faculty Committee on Fraternities composed of the faculty advisers of the several fraternities.

FOUNDED in the fall of 1925, the Northeastern Student Union has steadily enlarged its program until at the present time the scope of activity of this strong cog in student life has stretched over the entire student body, serving it just when the clouds are darkest and maintaining an interesting and elevating program throughout the year. Its threefold activities—social, service, and spiritual—have extended themselves into all phases of the undergraduate body.

Among the long line of notable achievements the most outstanding is perhaps the weekly chapel services. Many eminent preachers serve as the chapel speakers throughout the year.

In its noon-hour programs, the Union has sponsored a widely diversified program of educational and entertaining features including popular lectures, movies, and forums.

This year the Reading and Writing Room was redecorated and converted into a beautiful lounging room of comfort for the use of all students. Deep comfortable chairs, well lighted tables, writing desks, magazines and newspapers are to be found in this room. "Husky" stationery, pens and ink are always available.

Through its diversified intercollegiate contact the Union has given a dignified publicity to the University. Delegates were sent to a large number of student conferences throughout the year to discuss problems of common interest to all college students.

THE Inter-Club Council is a representative group endowed with the power of governing relations between the state and high school clubs. The Council consists of representative members, one from each club.

Activities undertaken by the Council include supervision of entertainments, athletics or other club functions; investigating eligibility of new clubs, granting club charters, and in general, to promote the best of good fellowship at Northeastern.

During the past year, the Council has been chiefly concerned with the management of the inter-club bowling tournament. The University Day Division Tennis Championship has always been managed by the Council.

Many smokers, dances and other social gatherings are held by the various clubs throughout the year. The Council usually runs one big dance each year at which all club men are eligible to attend. Professor Tozer is Faculty Advisor to the Council.

THE Handbook is published annually by the Northeastern Student Union, and is issued to students at the beginning of the College year. It contains detailed information concerning athletics, class activities, and organizations in the school. Schedules, a daily diary, songs, cheers, and important dates in the college calendar make the book of great value.

The Soccer Season

THE Northeastern soccer team is once again heralded as one of the East's undefeated teams. Led by none other than Captain Al Booker, the team showed plenty of fight and spirit throughout every contest. Although handicapped at times by injuries and other misfortunes the eleven was never outplayed.

Herbert Tiffany, '31, was again the scoring ace and his boots often pulled many a game out of the fire. Mario Franco was again an outstanding star on the defense. Lester Kershaw, '31 played both at inside and as a halfback with equal skill and at the season's close looked like a "major leaguer" at right half. Sretson and Gorbell, seniors who shared the center-half position in 1930 will be hard for the coach to replace.

Coach David Priestly deserves a world of credit for the fine showing of his charges. This is the second undefeated eleven that Dave has turned out at Northeastern, the first coming in 1928. With Dave at the helm again in '31, the outlook is none too bright for Husky's opponents.

The first game played was against Bridgewater Normal with the Huskies winning by five goals to none. Some new faces were seen in the line-up of Northeastern. MacDonald playing in place of the retired Tom Melia, played his first game of soccer as goal tender. Thompson was high scorer putting the ball into the net three times. Tom Cullen, Captain of the Bridgewater eleven played a brilliant brand of ball for his team.

The Huskies then travelled to Hanover to meet the strong Dartmouth eleven. The day dawned beautifully and turned out to be ideal soccer weather. Both teams presented their strongest line-ups for the fray and the Huskies went in as the underdog. It was in this contest where the fighting spirit of Northeastern was noticed. Dartmouth led 2-0 with five minutes to play. At this time Franco was not playing due to a serious injury which he had received. However, the boys played hard and through the individual brilliance of Tiffany two goals were scored to tie the game.

After playing a hard game at Hanover the team again came through by beating Springfield one to nothing on the home field. In this game MacDonald played one of the best games a goal tender has ever played for Northeastern. He stopped shot after shot under all conditions. The Husky eleven had tough luck on a number of occasions for Tiffany and Kershaw hit the bar several times. It was during a scrimmage when Tiffany scored the only goal. Hert took a quick shot for the goal when a Springfield man stepped in the way; the ball hit his leg and caromed into the goal.

Connecticut Aggie was the next in line and they fell easy prey to the strong Northeastern eleven. The Huskies won seven to nothing due to the good team work of the forwards.

Tufts College afforded the opposition for the next game with the contest played in a blinding rain and a sea of mud. The game ended with the Huskies on the winning end by four goals to one. Johnson broke into the scoring column by booting in two goals.

The CAULDRON 1931

In a mid-week game the eleven blanked Technology 1-0. The game was marred by a slippery pitch and mediocre refereeing. Northeastern had an off-day for it took the team plenty of time to get going and when they did function the period was over. After a try by Tiffany, Kershaw very cleverly got his foot on the ball and lobbed it in the corner for the only score.

The following Saturday the team journeyed to Worcester and after a sensational battle managed to tie the Clark eleven with a penalty kick by Captain Booker. Al's boot followed closely after a successful Clark penalty kick. The Huskies were confident they could defeat the respected opponents but could not play over time as the Clark outfit would not agree to it. This is a score for the 1931 team to settle.

Again playing away from home the Huskies met the Brown eleven at Providence. Coach Dave Priestly presented a different eleven by changing the veteran Louie Kershaw to halfback instead of inside. Louie soon found himself in his new position and proved a tower of strength. This game presented the same situation as occurred at Dartmouth for Northeastern was obliged to overcome a two-goal lead. Al Booker again rose to prominence by cutting down the lead with a penalty kick. Stetson forced the penalty by heading a perfect shot into the far corner which was knocked down by the right defense man of Brown. Tiffany scored the other tally from scrimmage on a sizzling shot.

By this time the team was drawing its season to a close and everything was heading for another undefeated team. The last game of the season was to be played at home with Worcester Tech supplying the opposition. This was also the last game for Stetson, Gorbell, Tiffany and Kershaw and proved to be an added inspiration for the so far undefeated Husky eleven. The first half ended with no score for either team. The ball travelled with lightning rapidity at all time and both goalies made wonderful saves after the backs had been beaten. In the last few minutes of the game Northeastern was on the offense and forced five corner kicks. At this stage of the game a score was almost inevitable but in the fifth try from a corner Franco hooked a beautiful shot into the far corner of the net for the only score.

At the conclusion of the soccer season the Annual Banquet was held and Captain Al Booker was again elected Captain with Feldman appointed as manager. Professor Parsons gave an interesting talk on the spirit displayed by the subs. Coach Priestly thanked the boys for the hard work and also for the gift the team presented him with. Mr. Fenno than gave a talk on the history of soccer and presented the team with gold soccer balls.

The Hockey Season

THE hockey team enjoyed a successful season in spite of the fact that the team did not win all of its games. The Huskies won four, tied one and lost six out of eleven tries. Captain Roger Emery was severely injured in a practice game before the season opened and was forced to drop hockey as an active participant. Rog, however, was a source of inspiration to his team, seldom missed a practice, and his cheery optimism and wise council was a big help to the sextet at all times. Emery's loss was badly felt as it left no experienced player to fill the all-important defense posts to start the season.

The M. I. T. Beavers were our first opponents, the game coming on January 7 at the Boston Arena. Northeastern scored one in the first period and one in the second to none for Tech. Carter and Kuposky starred. It was in this game that Bill Carter took over the job of Acting Captain which post he held through the year.

On January 10th the team went up to Durham to meet the University of New Hampshire. The Huskies failed to cop the verdict and returned home on the short end of a 2-1 score. Carter was brilliant for N. U.

Bowdoin College was faced at the Arena on January 16. The Polar Bears were no match for their Arctic rivals, losing to N. U. 6-3. Adolph Kreusel was the big noise in the locals' win, getting three goals himself and assisting in some of the others. Anderson and Carter also did some fine playing.

Saturday, January 17, marked the date of the only shutout handed to the Red and Black all season. M. A. C. playing on their own rink, won 3-0. This game is the now famous "slush polo" contest. The game would have been cancelled had it not been a feature event on the Aggies' Winter Carnival program.

Opening the two-game series with Brown University, on January 24th, Herbert Gallagher flashed for N. U., his second period goal tying the score at one all. This was not enough however, as the Bruins caged two more in the last session, winning 3-1. Northeastern played at Providence without the services of Carter who was out with the "flu".

Taking its longest jaunt of the year, the sextet motored to Schenectady, N. Y. to play Union College. Carter caged the puck twice, each time his shot being matched by that of Mr. Young of Union. Two overtime periods failed to change the situation, the result being Northeastern 2, Union 2. With the mercury flirting with zero, several of the players got bad frost bites, notably Kuposky and Si Anderson. Some of the boys are still talking about January 31st, as the coldest day of their lives. That night at "Schenect" the glass did read 15 below.

On February 4th, the team seemed fired with new spirit. Colby College came down to keep a 5:30 P.M. engagement. They took one goal back to Waterville, Me., while Northeastern put six of their own into the win column. Chalk up four for Carter, one for Kreusel and one for Dick Sommers. The Colby game was a good warm-up for the B. U. contest which was to follow two days later.

People are still talking about the time N. U. played B. U. The Red and Black got off on the wrong foot. Before they knew it the Terriers had piled up a 4-goal lead. All of a sudden, Bill Carter found the disk in his possession. Five quick strides, a shot, the net bulges, the red light flickered, N. U. scored. Then the period ended.

Going into the third period with three goals needed to tie, the Huskies fought a battle worthy of their name. Gallagher recovered a loose puck, waited for the right moment, shot, and he too scored. With about five minutes of play left, Paul Munroe, Northeastern's hockey "bad boy", rose to the occasion. Dashing madly down the right lane he fired a wicked drive into the far corner, and now Northeastern only needed one to tie. All the while B. U. was in desperation, as the Huskies flocked in droves around its net. Denton had replaced Kuposky for N. U. after the Terriers' fourth goal and he stopped every hostile charge. Finally the gong rang and Boston University had successfully defended its early lead. This game was the real dramatic climax of the season.

Playing Bates College at Lewiston, Maine on Monday, February 9th, Northeastern lacked the pepper and drive so noticeable in the B. U. game. Kreusel was injured early in the second session and had to leave the game. N. U. scored first on a nice shot by Gallagher. Bates soon tied it up. Carter put Northeastern ahead again and again Bates equalized. Bates went ahead only to have Gallagher tie it up again. The game went into two overtimes, in the second of which the Bobcats scored to beat Northeastern 4-3.

Brown University came up to the Arena for its return engagement on February 25th. Crane and Moulton starred for the visitors, the former scoring four goals for Brown. Don MacLeod saved N. U. from a whitewash with a beautiful solo dash.

Tech cancelled its second game. The return game with New Hampshire scheduled for February 11th was moved back to March 4th, and was the closing number on the Huskies' program. Playing the game at 5:30 p.m., the ice surface was not all that it should have been. However, it was as bad for N. U. as it was for N. H. Scoring three times in the first period, on thrusts by Carter, Gallagher and MacLeod, it looked as if the Red and Black was out to pile up a record count. New Hampshire caged one in the first and one in the second while Northeastern failed to tally again. Denton played a great game in the strings for the home team. This was the last appearance of Paul Munroe, star defense man. Munroe is the only senior who played as a regular last season.

Coach Raymond should look forward with pleasant anticipation to the coming season. He will have Bill Carter, Dolph Kreusel, Si Anderson, Dick Sommers, Herb Gallagher, Maurice Rice, Don MacLeod, forwards; Joe McMullen and Art Byrne, defensemen; and Jim Denton and Sonny Irving, goalies; as a nucleus for his 1931-'32 team. Of the foregoing, the following earned letters last season, Carter, Kreusel, Anderson, Gallagher, Rice, MacLeod, McMullen and Denton.

The Basketball Season

NORTHEASTERN'S 1930-1931 basketball team enjoyed the most successful season in its history, under Coach Al McCoy, when the twelfth win was scored at Worcester Tech 39-34. Double victories were scored over Clark and Newport Naval Training School. St. Michael's, New Bedford Tech., University of New Hampshire, Brooklyn City, Hamilton, Tufts, and Pratt were the other victims of the powerful Husky quintet. Losses were sustained at Union, Brown, Rhode Island, Harvard, and Rensselaer, while Massachusetts Aggies, Providence, and Rhode Island triumphed on the home court. These games made up the hardest schedule ever attempted by the Red and Black's hardwood dribblers.

Coach McCoy's Husky basketekers won six games away from home, thereby doubling the previous record on strange courts. The total number of victories surpassed the previous record of nine by three, and the losses were equal to the eight of last season.

Union was badly frightened when the Northeastern five led till the closing minutes only to lose 34-39. Clark was no match in either game for the Huskies, losing by 42-31 and 48-37. Brown won on the poor showing of the Red and Black team 32-42. The Tars from Newport threatened in each game but finally succumbed 48-37 and 42-

31. St. Michael's came to the "Y" with a highly touted outfit but were outclassed 52-24 as Bill Symancyk went on a scoring spree. New Bedford Tech's elastic five-man-defense was bothersome, but the regulars managed to smother them under a deluge of baskets, 49-25. The journey to Rhode Island State produced a thrilling battle which the boys of "Little Rhody" won in the waning moments 39-44. This hard fought game took a great deal out of the Huskies, so that Massachusetts Aggies, while Coach McCoy was ill at his home, were able to triumph on the local court 31-37. Providence had "a night" and completely outclassed Northeastern 60-32, although it must be said to the everlasting credit of the latter, that they fought to the last whistle in the face of players who were superior in ability and physique. The journey to New Hampshire was a pleasant one, for the boys returned with a fine victory 24-23 which was squeezed out as the gun barked to end the game. Brooklyn City College came to the Hub determined to avenge the defeat of last year which came after two overtime periods, but the disappointed New Yorkers had to return home on the short end of a 38-22 score. Then Coach McCoy's charges, full of hope, invaded Harvard's new gymnasium where they were defeated 26-36 in a game that was marked for its rough play and for its poor officiating. The trip of Northeastern to New York State resulted in an even break. Hamilton lost in a hard, clean, fast game 31-22 at Clinton. Rensselaer won a rough game from a tired team 37-51 although Herb Tiffanv played one of the most spectacular games of his career, scoring twenty points. Tufts provided plenty of opposition for the Huskies in Medford but the final whistle found the Jumbo five points short of the required 34. Hopes soared as the time neared for Rhode Island's visit to Boston because of the close margin of victory at Kingston. Horseman helped the boys from the "Tinv State" to win 29-46 in a game that did not do the home team credit as it was decidedly an "off night" for Northeastern. Pratt was being outclassed in the last home game in the Johnson Gym by the Huskies till the second team entered the fray. At this time the visitors took such a new lease of life that the varsity had a real task to win in a thrilling finish 33-22. Probably the best game of the season was played at Worcester for the edification of the team's distinguished followers, President Speare and Dean Ell. Clever shooting by Herb Tiffany and Bill Symancyk, plus the return to form of Hintz and Brown, not to forget the backboard recoveries of Bud Rymph, all helped the Northeastern quintet achieve the school's best basketball record. During the season, Northeastern scored 736 points to 690 for the opponents.

Captain Bud Rymph was the mainstay of the team. His stalwart presence was always a steadying factor, and his defensive play helped in no small way to put the team ahead. It was his solo in the New Hampshire game that produced the winning basket. He came through when he was needed most. Herb Tiffany and Bill Symancyk, scoring twins, scored from all angles and distances to help the team win, closing brilliant careers of three and four years respectively as varsity basketball lettermen. Red Hassell played every minute of the final contest in characteristic fashion; he followed his man with leech-like tenacity and was ever an offensive threat on a fast cut down the floor, scoring in nearly every game. Hintz, Christensen, Brown, and Coughlan, the other letter men, played important parts. Presper, Cleveland, Piascik, and Myers completed the squad.

Don MacKenzie who was doing a wonderful job in managing the basketball squad, was severely injured in a coasting accident during Christmas week. He was unable to be with the team for almost ten weeks and his absence was a body blow to the managerial situation. Don was a stickler for efficiency and his work was always carried out with clock-like precision. Don, however, was able to resume his duties before the end of the season.

During the absence of MacKenzie, George Thompson stepped into the breach and held the fort successfully till Mac's return. Tommy brought with him a winning personality, a capacity for hard work, and several years of experience as Varsity Baseball Manager. George Thompson deserves a world of credit for the unselfish and untiring service which he rendered to the basketball team as its acting manager.

The team was ably coached through this most successful season by Al McCoy. The McCoy system, typified by a fast passing, clean, five-man offense, played an increasing part in the varsity program this year. Coach McCoy was fortunate in having Mr. Everett for his assistant. The latter spent most of his time with the winning freshman team and he deserves real credit for their fine showing.

The Baseball Season

WHEN the baseball season opened last spring, prospects were very dubious. There was a scarcity of experienced material on hand for Coach Al McCoy to work with. There was but one pitcher in school who had ever toed the mound for Northeastern, namely, Hal Somerville. Tommy, however, was unable to report. The graduation of Neal Mahoney '29, left no veteran receivers to bolster up the catching department. Capt. Warren Nutter and Bill Carter were the only infield lettermen to report. The outfield situation was not much better. Coach McCoy, serving his first term with the ball tossers, had to build from the ground up. The season's record tells a story of inexperienced players who were learning all the time. With only Ted Nelson '30, a pitcher, lost because of graduation, this year's team should begin to bear the fruit of Al McCoy's teaching, and that of his very helpful aide, Mr. McIntire.

The opening game was lost to the Navy Red Sox of Charlestown. Very sloppy work fielding deprived the Huskies of a win as they were leading, 4-2 until the eighth inning when the sailors got three runs on a bad double error by the first baseman and the rightfielder. Final score, 4-5. Fourteen passes by our rookie hurlers, gave the Tufts game to our visitors. Tiffany was brilliant around the second sack. Northeastern's five hits could not match the Jumbo's eleven so we lost, 12-1.

On April 12th, the Red and Black journeyed down to Providence to meet Providence College. The result was another bad defeat, 2-12. Carter got three hits to fatten up his average, and also fielded with his usual class. In the return game with Providence at home, the Huskies held their mighty rivals to four runs but weak work with the willow cost us all thoughts of victory. Ted Nelson and Joe McMullen pitched great ball against the famous Danny Conners but lost 2-4.

On the 19th of April, our boys were in no holiday mood at Schenectady. There they were defeated by Union College, 2-13. Red Hassell, scored both times. The game itself saw all of the breaks going to the home team and it was played in a high wind on a very muddy field. Right after this game, Bill Symancyk reported for practice and looked good on the mound.

The Huskies failed to live up to their Arctic name at Worcester on April 23rd, as they lost to Clark, four runs to two. N. U. led until the end of the fifth. Part of the game was played in a blizzard of wind and snow alternating with brilliant sunshine. As Clark went ahead in the sixth, the umpire called the game. Symancyk started his first game in the box and the freezing weather prevented him from making a better showing.

Northeastern lost a tough one at Rhode Island State, 7-8, but made its best showing so far that season. McMullen pitched a good game. Carter got three hits, including a triple. McMullen and Nutter each got two. On the following day, April 26th, at Trinity, Symancyk pitched a whale of a game but lost 2-1. Tiffany stole home for our only marker and he made some seemingly impossible plays around second base. Adams, pitching for Trinity, twirled a nice game and his two homers, both of them of the Spanish variety, won the ball game. Two normal singles trickled through a green outfielder for eight bases. Lucky Mr. "Sparky" Adams!

The nine won its first victory against Colby, 8-4, Swaels scoring six times in the lucky seventh. Nutter and Cook each garnered two hits. Carter and Tiffany again starred in the infield. Klusic hit three triples for Colby, a Huntington Field record. Nelson pitched the entire game for the Huskies.

On May 2nd, we entertained our second visitor from Maine. This time we were not so fortunate, the final count reading Northeastern 3, Bowdoin 11. Dick Cook started his first game at first base, coming in from left field. He fielded well. Johnny Grosz, freshman catcher thrilled the crowd with a prodigious homer in the fifth canto. McKowan, for Bowdoin, hit a homer in the sixth with the bags loaded. Not so good!

On May 3rd, Worcester Tech had to travel ten innings before they grabbed the verdict by a 5-4 score. The lead changed hands four times. Tiffany, Nutter and Presper got two hits apiece. The winning run came over when a visitor, seemingly tagged out at second, was called safe. On reaching third he was again given a break by the ump. He tallied on a fluke hit that dropped half way between the infield and the outer gardens.

In spite of six bad errors, the Huskies defeated the U. S. Coast Guard nine 8-3, on May 10th at home. Nutter's triple with two on base in the eighth broke up the game. Joe McMullen pitched well. Grosz did well behind the bat, and the rest of the nine also looked good at times.

Rhode Island State, our big rival, came to town on May 13. The date must have been unlucky as this was the only time the ball club was shut out during the entire season. State got one run in the third and the other in the sixth. Herb Tiffany starred with two hits, while in the field his work was sensational. Several incipient rallies were ended when the necessary bingle was not forthcoming. Ted Nelson turned in a good pitching performance but weak sticking cost him the game.

Northeastern's six runs were not enough to defeat Middlebury on May 17th as the Vermonters got eleven. Carter stole home. Seven other bases were stolen by N. U. men. Presper, Nutter, Carter and Tiffany each got two safe blows. Grosz did a bang up job and caught every attempted steal by the foe. Both Nelson and McMullen hurled for the Red and Black and neither was effective, Middlebury getting seventeen hits off their combined delivery.

Massachusetts Agricultural College helped us ring down the curtain on a poor season. They beat Northeastern, 6-12, at home on May 24th. Nelson started on the mound but blew up in the sixth. He was followed by McMullen, Kokoska, Best and Tiffany on the hill. Carter, Tiffany and Nutter starred afield, while Nutter got two hits.

The Track Season

DURING the past year, Northeastern has been represented by the greatest track team ever to grace the boards or cinders at N. U. Records have been smashed right and left. Each summary of every meet tells its own story. Efficient coaching, hard work and plenty of plugging by each athlete, sacrifices here and there, have brought the Red and Black to the peak. Stars have come and stars have gone, but a galaxy still remains within the halls of old N. U. Watch the Huskies go outdoors this spring!

At the Greater Boston Meet Northeastern sprang a surprise by coming second to Harvard and Northeastern tracksters set five new records at the Boston intercollegiates. Bud Rymph, basketball captain, was the highest point scorer for the Huskies, tallying six points. Jim Falt provided an upset in the broad jump when he beat Rowe of Harvard who was the favorite. Martin broke his own mark in the pole vault by jumping 12 feet 8 3-4 inches. In the high jump Morang and Morley finished first and second. Powers won the high hurdles from Red Record, the favorite, and a Harvard star. Several N. U. men placed in the heats but failed to work their way into the finals.

In the Easterns outdoors, the Husky hopes of becoming the Eastern intercollegiate champions for the third successive year were dashed away when Springfield won the meet with 51 1-2 points. N. U. was second with a score of 44 1-3 points. Al Morang repeated his last year's win in the high jump and then walked over and won the broad jump, beating Jim Falt out of first place by a scant margin of 1 inch. Freeman placed third and Morley tied for fourth in the high jump. Jim McCrudden won the half-mile for N. U. after a thrilling battle with Brown and Olmstead of Springfield. Powers running true to form won the high hurdle event, tying the record. Capt. George Martin repeated his win of last year in the pole vault and broke his own record.

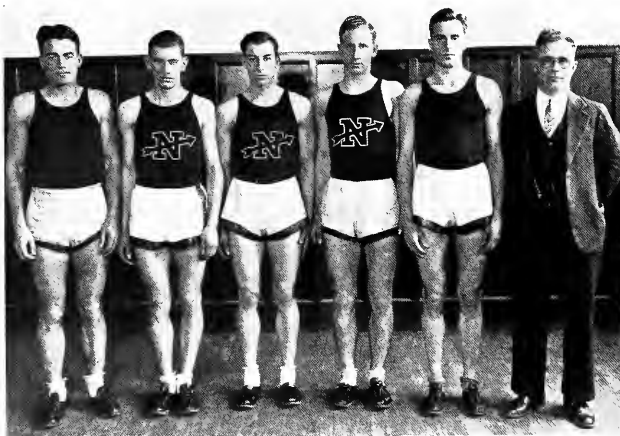

Closing their 1930 season in the New England's, Northeastern astounded the track world by placing second to the University of Maine. Powers won the hurdles, Morang the high jump and Martin the pole vault. Al Forsberg shattered the record in winning the javelin. Francis Shea took a second in the quarter mile run. John Morley tied for third in the high jump. Holy Cross, a meet favorite, placed third.

The annual Fall Handicap Track Meet which was held at Huntington Field brought out some good performances. This meet started off the preparations for the big indoor season during the winter, the zenith of which was the Eastern Intercollegiate, held at Amherst and which the Huskies won. In the Fall meet Bud Rymph was the high scorer by winning both the javelin throw and hammer throw.

2 Mile Relay Team—Coach Parsons, Morang, Capt. Fischer, McCrudden, Greenleaf, Allen

1 Mile Relay Team—Allen, Hanson, Shea, Falt, Grieve, Coach Parsons

Algot Forsberg was a close runner-up for individual honors. Al won the shotput and took second place in the javelin which is his specialty. Al holds the New England Intercollegiate record and also the school record for this event.

Then came the Prout Memorial games with the varsity mile and two-mile relay teams competing for honors. The varsity one-mile team lived up to expectations and handed the New Hampshire Wildcats a decisive beating and incidentally broke the N. U. record for the one-mile contest. The combination of Falt, Shea, Hanson and Grieve is certainly a hard one to beat. The two-mile team, the first in the history of the University, made its bow at the "Casey" games placing third in the Intercollegiate relay. The misfortune of a bad pass resulting in a dropped baton, spoiled chances for a much better position.

Following the Prout games the Millrose games came next at New York. The mile relay team made the trip. Our star hurdler Francis Powers was entered in the meet but was unable to make the trip due to an injury. The jinx that has pursued the Huskies' relay teams while competing in the Millrose games, was again on the job. Despite the fact that the team was the fastest ever put on the boards by N. U., our boys were beaten by Manhattan and B. C.

In a dual meet with Brown at Providence, the Huskies won as they pleased, getting a margin of 16 points over the Bruins. Phil Freeman broke the high jump mark, leaping 6 feet 2 3/8 inches. Powers won the hurdles and Eddie Fischer copped the mile.

The B. A. A. games resulted in more laurels for the track team. The mile relay team again chalked up another win by defeating the fast Bowdoin and Villanova teams. Our high jumpers, Scott and Freeman, made a very impressive showing in their event. George Martin competing for the B. A. A. and formerly Captain for the N. U. track team, placed second in the pole vault. George at the present time still holds the school record. Another Northeastern athlete entered was Charlie Thompson, now running for the N. Y. Central A. A. He placed third in the special invitation 1000-yard run.

The Eastern indoors added more to our string of victories. Our boys were in the pink of condition for they gathered six first places and eight seconds. The big surprise of the meet was the fact that Stretch MacKenzie nosed out Fran Powers in the high hurdles. The high jumpers lived up to their reputation and almost scored a grand slam in their event. Scott won the event with Freeman and Douglas taking second and third.

HUSKY SAYS

Supreme optimism is glaringly displayed by the youths who call up a week ahead of time to get their marks.

Strange things have happened but still stranger is the future.

* * * * *

The brilliance of collegiate fame dies with the reception of a sheepskin—Years of hard struggle seem of no avail but your reward awaits you in fields not bounded by campus limits.

* * * * *

Seek and ye shall find—but not always that which you expect.

* * * * *

Love, Laugh, and Taste of Life in its fullest—Make it pay and you will Live—You will find yourself slowly creeping out of that empty cavern of mortal existence.

* * * * *

Those who claim the place of friendship in your life will stand investigation—A date may be in the offing and your money may be the objective.

* * * * *

Plan your moves—We move about in life even as chess-men on the chess board of chance and woe is he who jumps and leaves himself uncovered.

* * * * *

Limitless, Boundless, and Enchantingly Etherial is the scope of collegiate accomplishment—The greatest mystery is still unsolved—How with such opportunity awaiting at every turn is it possible for a student to let himself sink into a quagmire of textbooks, instead of scratching the surface of those virgin fields of vibrant activity.

* * * * *

How the heavy burden of keeping the activity falls week after week on the square shoulders of a few clever fellows seems rather unfair when one knows the actual student enrollment available for this work—It's interesting work too!

* * * * *

Once it was said that Time was Relative—After reading some of the Einstein dope on Relativity one begins to wonder just what time is and who controls it.

* * * * *

Students of Philosophy and Life, for certainly all of living and life, immortal and mortal, transcends in one long chain of abstract philosophies, have their subject at their fingertips—They have but to analyze themselves and in undertaking that task have chosen a life job based on every philosophy ever divulged.

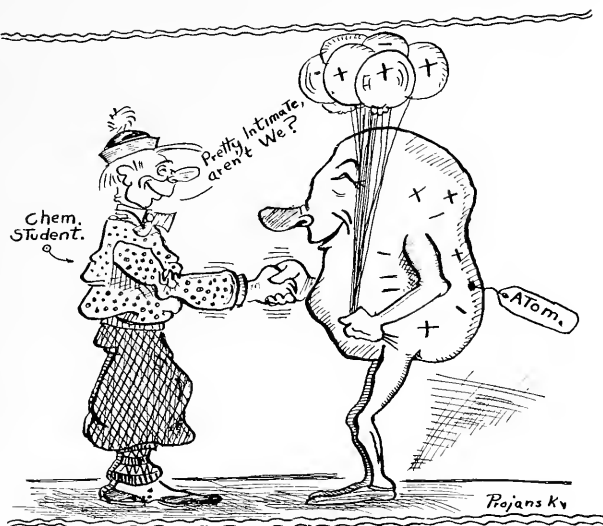

* * * * *

Troubles pile up and cares multiply but there's always a way out—If you don't believe it listen to some of the stories that flow from the liquid tongues of the mis-understood students.

THE ADVENTURES OF THE NIGHT OWLS

LARRY AND SOUP AT THE PROM

"Well, it sure looks like a big time tonight," remarked Larry, as he struggled into his dress suit. "Who are you taking to the Prom, Soup?"

"Dean Caldwell's daughter," replied Soup, reaching nonchalantly for an O.P.

"Gee, I didn't know you were flunking in anything, Soup."

"Huh, what are you trying to be, a wise guy, Larry? Another crack like that and I will take back my brother's tux and you can go to the Prom in your skivvies."

"Now listen, Soup, you wouldn't play a dirty trick like that on the three-hundred odd co-eds who are going to the dance tonight, all looking forward to a dance with me. Of course I can't dance with all of them, but I can give nine or ten of them something to dream about."

"Gee, but you're a modest guy, Larry, who's the lucky girl that you're taking to the Prom?"

"Chickie, my suppressed desire, Soup old boy, and just to show you what a pal I am, I'm going to let you ask her for a dance."

"Boy, what a break, are you sure that you can spare it, Larry?"

"Oh, I'll manage it somehow. Come on let's get going."

At two o'clock the Prom was over and Soup had managed to get the first and last dance with Betty, the Dean's daughter, and the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth with Chickie. During the last dance Soup had just about convinced Betty that they should take a walk along the beach before returning home, when suddenly he was almost felled by a blow on the back, and upon looking around he saw Larry and Chickie.

"Come on, Soup, we're going to Chinatown for some chop suey."

"Well, you didn't have to knock me down to tell me that, did you, you big ox! I have already asked Betty to take a walk with me along the beach, I've got to catch up on my astronomy."

"Let's go to Chinatown and catch up on our foreign languages," came smartly back from Betty.

"We'll put down the roof of the car and you can still catch up on your astronomy," contributed Chickie.

"Yes, and with you trying out your back seat technique we'll go the fable one better and kill three birds with one car," chimed in Larry, pushing them into the car.

Everything went along fine until they started homeward. First there was a blow-out, and then Larry, trying to catch up for lost time, was pinched for speeding. Failure to find his father's registration papers necessitated a trip to the local hoosegow until the police checked up on the car.

About 4 A.M. they slid up to the curb in front of Dean Caldwell's house and Soup and Betty tripped softly up the stairs. After saying good night ten or twenty times, Soup wished her a speedy and successful trip to bed and departed.

Next morning, as Soup was in the middle of his Physics period nap, he was aroused by a sharp tap on the back, and looking up he saw professor Whootookit's blue eyes smiling down upon him.

"I'm sorry to disturb your sleep," he said, "but the Dean wishes to see you."

"Boy, I'm sure in a mess now," he thought to himself, as he staggered out of the room, his face becoming paler and paler. "The old boy will probably tell me to keep away from his daughter and then kick me out in the bargain."

With his hand on the door knob of the Dean's office, he hesitated a moment, then composed himself and walked bravely in.

The Dean sat behind a dark shiny mahogany desk, a dark frown over his sleepy face.

"Soup, my boy," he said sternly, "look at me, do I look as though I slept well last night?"

"Er, er, no sir," stammered Soup.

"Well," growled the Dean, "I didn't. Now I don't mind your going out with my daughter, but when you bring her home at four in the morning——"

"Well, sir, you see it was this way,——"

"As I was saying," continued the Dean, "when you bring my daughter at four in the morning, kindly find some other spot to lean on besides my door-bell."

THE FIRST LETTER

(from a freshman to his mother)

noVember i3.

Dear Ma.

the reaSoN i Hav?t written as yet Is BEcause i ThoUght I would surprize you. I have taken Up TYPEWRITING. Do 'T you Think I am doing swell& when i Ist got here they Stole my hat and i Had to GIVE Some Boys a $1.00 for a red one i AM wareing it Know.
A few days later we had a RUSH. It was like football only more so.
First i had to carry A Basket through a fishnet under a barrell over a goal post. i got one leg over The Bar and i Could not get down so i fell down. I did not get Hurt—much.
After the footBall game which i did not play in we had the rush
THE first part of the rush was the rush but NOT THE rEal part.
then we all lined up in a BIG mob and when the gun went off we ran for the pole, i did not see the pole because a big guy from mainE was ahead of me. Then it was swell—we all pushed and shoVed up to the sophomores who were deFending the pole. It was all dust. Not the pole the Fight. I could not se much so I grabbed a leg. it did not move so I bit it . IT WAS MY OWN leg. The enemy i meen sophs were two many of them so they one. My arm got hurt although it was my leg i bit so they took Me in a car to a hispital where the nurses took Good Care Of Me.

My arm is Recoop—Recu))) (Ican't spell recuperating) fast Dont' worry. We have another rush next Year. Then we will get even.
I am soon going out For Cross country insteady of Jym
You only have to run 5 Miles or get lost. I hope I do not get the latter.

Yours till then,

your loving son, Robert.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING ~

The CAULDRON 1931

Subject—HUSKY RESUMES HIS PONDERINGS

Deep furroughs have scored themselves on the thoughtful brow of this dog— He has been in seclusion, biting off all his fingernails, tearing out the most of his hair or in other words he has been trying his dog-gonest to produce an effusion of diatribe.

* * * * *

There are several salient objective subjects around and about this venerable pile (Old English for College) that call to mind that after all there may be such a thing as an "infantile extravert"— It has been my bitter experience that the person inflicted with "infantile extravertiveness" has one of the most insidiously horrible mental neuroses that can be considered among the fates worse than death. The above was the result of seven psychology lectures and two interviews with professors interested in the advance of Civilization by the way of physiological and psychological analyses.

* * * * *

Drifting from the realms of Jargon and once again finding my feet on sane ground I will endeavor to heap up some copy for the advisor of this volume— He is tearing around the office. He is in a state of terrible rage or maybe it's just his natural way of getting rid of his surplus energy— If that's what he has on his mind I rather wish he would give "a po whaaate doouog" (Good old Southern accent) some help along constructive lines— Hold ye varlets he has poured a gem of nonsenseacality upon the already vapid air and I shall grasp same with an ardor that surprises even myself and convey above mentioned gem to you poor unsuspecting fellars. Give me an ear and I will deal kindly with it.

* * * * *

All who write or bang typewriters for newspapers or have an idea rolling around in their respective squashes that what they have to say through the medium of a pen is worthy of consumption by the way of printed matter—must smoke—and it also has been said that a columnist or a journalist is usually found with a cigarette or seegar or doudeen (Irish for pipe) hanging from that part of his physiognomy with which he emits verbal utterances. If he cannot do same then the copy which flows from his pen will lack that tasty twang, that smooth distinctive style that classifies the newspaper man— He has an iron-clad comeback if he is not permitted to smoke while he writes so be it known that the News office is being besieged with complaints from their versatile correspondents and all of no avail. Something should be done about that— Think it over.

* * * * *

The very first thing that a freshman learns in his English class is that he must get away from Jargon and express himself in short concise facts— "To the point," rave the instructors. Then as the years roll away and the collegian passes from one class to another, he gleans a vocabulary that would astound the most advanced scholar— Astounding because no one ever has or, I firmly believe, ever will hear some of the vocabularian creations that emerge from the mouths of the upperclassmen— When the time is at hand for the well-schooled and finely educated members of college to graduate, their Jargon has reached a level that is beyond description in humble prose. Strange isn't it that the things we are warned against are usually the ones at which we become most proficient. Something ought to be done about that.

Acknowledgments

The Editorial Board of the 1931 CAULDRON wishes hereby to express its thanks and sincere appreciation for the valuable services rendered to it by the Misses Naomi A. Cutler, Mildred M. Hopkins, Helen W. Lyndon, and Dorothy M. Murray; without whose help this volume could never have been published.
